ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE DON LUIS TOWN SITE COMPANY.
We, William H. Barnes, Henry P. Barbour and Henry Laub, Charles W. Hull, desiring to incorporate ourselves, under the provisions of the laws of the Territory of Arizona, for the purpose of engaging in the lawful enterprise, business, pursuit and occupation hereinafter specified, do make, describe and acknowledge according to law, in triplicate, articles of incorporation, and declare:

First:
That the names of the incorporators are William H. Barnes, Henry P. Barbour, and Henry Laub and Charles W. Hull.

Second:
The name assumed by this corporation, and by which it shall be known is "THE DON LUIS TOWN SITE COMPANY," and its principal place of transacting business is Don Luis, Cochise County, Arizona.

Third:
The general nature of the business, pursuit, occupation and enterprise proposed to be transacted and engaged in by said corporation, is that of laying out, promoting and establishing a city at Don Luis, in Cochise County, Territory of Arizona, and to that end the acquisition of lands and water for the same, and inhabitants thereof, and the disposition of the same for the purposes aforesaid. The construction of hotels and operating the same. The construction of water-works and the operation of the same. The construction of street railways and the operation of the same. The construction of systems of lighting by means of gas, electricity or other suitable means, and the operation of the same. The purchase and sale of lands for any and all purposes, and the purchase and sale of water and water rights, and the loaning of money upon mortgage and other securities, and the purchase and sale of all personal property and choses in action. The carrying on of the business of banking in all its forms. The construction of telegraph and telephone lines and systems, and the operation of the same; and to hypothecate, mortgage, or pledge all or any part of the property which this corporation may hereafter acquire; to secure payment of such money with interest, or to secure the payment of any debt of this corporation with such interest thereon, as it may be legally obliged to pay.

Third:
The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, divided into ten thousand shares of the par value of ten dollars each, and the time when it is to be paid shall be the time of making subscription to capital stock.

Fourth:
The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the day of filing of these articles of incorporation in the office of the County Recorder of Cochise County, Arizona Territory, and the termination thereof shall be twenty-five years thereafter.

Fifth:
The affairs of the corporation are to be conducted by a Board of Directors consisting of five persons.

The first Board of Directors are to be elected by the stockholders, or those who have subscribed for stock on the books of the company, at any meeting which may be called by a majority of these incorporators for that purpose—who shall hold their office until the first annual meeting of the stockholders.

The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be on the First Wednesday after the First Monday in January of each year, but such time of meeting may be changed by the stockholders at any such annual meeting. The officers of the company shall be a President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary, each of whom shall be a stockholder, and a member of the Board of Directors, except the Secretary, who need not be either, but who can be elected and dismissed at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

No person shall be a director who is not a stockholder, and vacancies that may happen at any time after the election of the Board, may be filled by the remaining members of the Board.

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum, and may appoint their own time and place of meeting.

Sixth:
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation is any time to subject itself is the sum of SIXTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Seventh:
The stockholders in this corporation, and their private property shall be exempt from the corporate debts of this corporation.

Eighth:
The Board of Directors shall have power to establish By-Laws and make all rules and regulations deemed expedient for the management of the affairs of this corporation, not inconsistent with the Constitution and Laws of the United States, and the Laws of this Territory.

Witness our hands and seals this 8th day of October, A. D. 1903.
